

Riccardo Santoni MD, PhD

Education and Academic appointments:

- °Degree in Medicine and Surgery (1974) University of Florence.
  - °Qualified as a Radiation Oncologist (1978) University of Florence.
  - °1979 - 1983: Radiation therapy Researcher - University and Hospital Department of Radiation Therapy - Florence.
  - °June 1983 December 1994: Research Fellow - Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) and Harvard University - Boston, USA
  - °January 1995 October 2000: assistant Professor, Department of Radiation Oncology, University of Florence, Italy.
  - ° November 2000 to date, Professor, Radiation Oncology, University of Rome - Tor Vergata.
- Director of the postgraduate School of Radiation Therapy, University of Rome Tor Vergata (1997 to date).
- ° Director of the Teaching Course for Medical Radiology Technicians since (2012 to date).

Teaching activities:

- °Tumour imaging and treatment techniques in Radiation Therapy. (Medical School University of Rome - Tor Vergata and Postgraduate Medical School in Radiation therapy - University of Rome - Tor Vergata).

Main topics of research:

- °Conformal Radiation Therapy and Protons - SNC tumours
- °Tissue characterization with MRI and evaluation of late effects of RT
- °Computers in Radiation therapy, computerized clinical records
- °Tumours of the gastrointestinal apparatus
- °Gynaecologic tumours
- °Pediatric tumours.